DYSPEPSIA.

Sedentary habits, mental worry, nervous smeltement, excess or imprudence in cating or drinking, and various other causes, induce Constitution followed by general derangement of the liver, kidneys, and stomach, in which the disorder of each organ increases the infirmity of the others. The immediate results are Loss of Appetite, Nausea, Foul Breath, Heartburn, Flatulence, Dizziness, Sick Hendaches, failure of physical and mental vigor, distressing sense of weight and fullness in the stomach, and increased Costiveness, all of which are known under one head as Dyspepsia. ense of weight and makes, all of which are anown under one head as Dyspepsia.

To cary he tames where this disease doe nown under one hear this disease does not originate from serofulous taint in the blood, Ayen's Pills may be confidently relied upon to effect a cure. Those cases purifying properties of AXER'S SARSAPA-RULLS. Dyspeptics should know that the longer trealment of their malady is postponed, the more difficult of cure it becomes.

Ayer's Pills Never fail to relieve the bowels and pro-mote their healthful and regular action, and thus cure Dyspepeia. Temporary palliatives all do permanent harm. The fitful activity into which the enfectled stomach is spurred by "bitters," and alco-holic stimulants, is inevitably followed by reaction that leaves the organ weaker

"I was induced to try Arm's Pills as a remody for Indigestion, Constipution, and Hendache, from which I had long been a sufferer. I found their astion easy, and obtained prompt relief. They have benefited me more than all the medicines ever before tried." M.V. Warnox, 152 State St., Chicago, III. "They have entirely corrected the coetive habit, and vastly improved my general health." REV. FRANCIS B. HARLOWE, Atlanta, Ga. "The most effective and the easiest physic I have ever found. One dose will quickly more my bowels and free my head from pain." W. L. Paur, Richmand, Va. "A sufferer from Liver Complaint, Dyo-pepala, and Neuralgia for the last twenty years, Axea's Pills have benefited me more than any modicine I have ever taken." P. 2. Roogna, Neutmore, Brown Co., Ind. "For Dyspepsia they are invaluable." J. T.

"Active and excited" is still the only way to describe the speculative market on 'Change.

The same doubt haugs over the corn deal now that existed when prices were 8c to 10c higher. The utter absence of support during the recent decline shows manipulation very clearly. But the clique have held on to their cash corn steadily at a large daily expense for storage, and have also margined down their long trades and called for margins in the upward direction from sellers. What does upward direction from sellers. What does this signify? The future will tell. For the present they seem disposed to keep perfectly quiet. All sorts of gossip is current on the floor, the latest, perhaps, being to the effect that the wily McHenry has not only speceded in cleaner of the standard of the s
